Turin, April 9. N. S.

EVery thing continues very quiet on our Frontiers. The German Detachment which lately arriv'd at St. Balein and Montanaro, continue ſtill there; and, as the Soldiers want ſeveral things to enable them to take the Field, his Royal Highneſs hath promis'd the General Officers that he will not make them March towards the Mountains, 'till it be abſolutely neceſſary, that their Officers may have time to furniſh themſelves with ſuch Proviſions as may be convenient. General Zumjungen hath begun the Siege of Porto Ercole, but cannot puſh it on with any Vigour, 'till he receives the Succours and Ammunition, which are order'd from Naples. His Royal Highneſs with his Court, continue at the Venerie, where they are all in perfect Health. A Courier is every Moment expected here from Utrecht, with the French Anſwer to the Demands of the Allies, by which it is believ'd, we may be able to gueſs at the Succeſs of the Negotiations there.

Venice, April 16. N. S. We have Advice from Naples, that Her Majeſty's Ships the Cornwal and Mary, with ſome Tranſports and ſeveral Tartanes, were Sail'd with Proviſions for Port Mahone. The Letters from Rome bring an Account, that a Promotion of Cardinals is expected very ſpeedily. There is a great mortality of Horſes in that City, and in all the Southern Parts of Italy, but a Remedy has been found out which ſaves many of them. Upon Saturday in the Evening, the Earl of Peterborough return'd hither by Poſt from Genoa. The Weſton Gally is arriv'd here with Sugar, Lead, and other Commodities from Briſtol. The Letters from Conſtantinople of the Tenth of March inform us, that the Port not being ſatisfy'd with the Reſtitution of Aſoph, makes ſtill farther Pretenſions upon the Muſcovites, and that the Cham of Tartary was in a readineſs to March; in the mean time their Preparations for War, give an Umbrage to this Republick.

Milan, April 16. N. S. We have Advice from Florence, that the German Cavalry which were Quarter'd in the Sienneſe, are arriv'd in the Country of Piſa, but it is not yet known whether they will March back into Lombardy, or paſs directly for Final, to be in a readineſs to embark for Barcelona. The Attack of Porto Ercole goes on but ſlowly, becauſe the Artillery and Ammunition that was expected from Naples, are not yet arriv'd. The Count de Vimercato is ſent from hence to Rome, to acquaint the Pope with the Death of the Cardinal Archinto, Archbiſhop of this Place, and to intreat him to nominate ſome other Nobleman of Milan in his room.

Zurich, April 20. N. S. The Roman Catholick Canton of Lucerne has ſeiz'd ſeveral Poſts upon the Frontiers of Zurich; and the latter has ſent about Sixteen thouſand Men into the County of Tockenburg. The Troops of the Canton of Berne are marching thither with Twelve Pieces of Cannon, and a great quantity of Ammunition. Both theſe Proteſtant Cantons have publiſh'd a Manifeſto, declaring, that they have no other Deſign than the Protection of the Inhabitants in their ancient Privileges and Liberties; and that they are deſirous to accept of any friendly and honourable Mediation, rather than come to a Rupture.

Utrecht, April 29. N. S. Yeſterday Morning at a General Conference which was held between the Miniſters of the Allies, Baron Stoffemberg produc'd his full Powers from the Circle of Swabia, and was admitted into the Conference. In the Afternoon the Miniſters of France diſpatch'd a Courier to their Court, and ſeeing they have not as yet demanded a Conference for to Morrow, with the Miniſters of the Allies, it is ſuppos'd that they are not provided to give in any Anſwer. The Baron Bothmar, who is arriv'd from England at the Hague, is expected here this Evening, having the Character of Plenipotentiary from the Elector of Hanover aud Brunſwick, for the preſent Negotiations of Peace.
